

Teacher's Name: Barbara

Subject: English

Date of class: Thursday, January 26, 2012

Date homework is due: Thursday, February 2, 2012

Homework #: 16

1. What we did in class:

Sentences to Paragraphs: Unit 7 - Paragraph Planning

Grammar: N/A

Reading: Charge of the Light Brigade, continued

2. Exercises for the homework:

1. Memorize the ENTIRE poem, The Charge of The Light Brigade, by Alfred, Lord Tennyson - Be prepared to recite the poem in class next week!!! See Attached
2. Sentences to Paragraphs - no HW
3. Grammar - no HW
4. The Charge of the Light Brigade -
 - a. After several weeks studying, reading about, and discussing this famous poem, answer the questions in the work packet. See Attached
 - b. Answer BOTH of the following essay questions.
REMEMBER: you should use a topic and closing sentence, as well as a variation of supporting sentences.
 - i. Explain why Tennyson does not name or single out any of the six hundred.
 - ii. Do you think this poem glorifies war? Does it criticize it? How can you tell?